MODULE 2.5

POWER MANIFESTATIONS

“Every moment of your life is infinitely creative, and the universe is endlessly bountiful. Just put forth a clear enough request and everything your heart desires must come to you.”

SHAKTI GAWAIN

Words are the living energy of manifestation. They are the creative links that connect my thoughts with my deeds, manifesting the tangible circumstances of my existence.

My words, if delivered with purposeful intent, and if in harmonious alignment with my thinking and my actions, have the power of a divine catalyst, greatly increasing the speed by which I am able to manifest my desires. There are two Power Manifestations that can augment this catalyst, maximizing my full creative powers when stated with wholehearted conviction for their realization:

- Abundance Manifestation
- Intention Manifestation

I must acknowledge that I am here for a noble purpose. I must know that my life matters. So I shall declare myself worthy of all the good and abundance in the universe. My life is far too precious to let anything get in the way of the complete expression of my spirit. If there is an obstacle in my way I shall move it, climb it, slide under it, or go around it. Whatever I do, I must cease focusing on the obstacle. Instead, I must direct my attention — through my empowering thoughts, words and deeds — to what I earnestly desire. These two Power Manifestations will enable me to focus my energies on the successful end results I seek, creating them in my reality.

It's Day 38 . . . I'm empowered for life!

Being Wholeheartedly Abundant

My thoughts, words and deeds, all are real forces, all are creative energy. Therefore, what I think, what I speak and what I do is what I will attract into my life. Being wholeheartedly abundant — which is possessing whole-body abundance consciousness — means thinking vast empowering thoughts of affluence. It means speaking amazing positive words of prosperity. And it means doing great constructive deeds of generosity. My life is a perfect reflection of my thoughts, my words and my deeds. If I do not like the reflection, I must take responsibility for the decisions I make that manifest my life. I begin creating my reality as an Empowered Millionaire the moment my thinking, speaking and actions are focused on the positive aspects of abundance — such as contribution, compassion and caring.

‘Abundance’ as defined here represents all of the extraordinary gifts life has to offer. These include optimum wellness and vibrant great health; miraculous success and awesome wealth; vast knowledge and immense wisdom; endless love and intense compassion; eternal happiness and blissful joy. If I desire to have a torrent of these riches flowing through my life, it is imperative for me to develop an abundance consciousness. This means for me to become totally aware of and acknowledge the phenomenal abundance and limitless opportunity that surrounds me everywhere during every moment of every day.

A Consciousness Of Abundance

By stating a power-packed series of affirmations, such as my Abundance and Intention Manifestations, these will create a consciousness of abundance within every call of my body. Whenever I consistently think, speak and act poor, I will become poor. Alternatively, if I will flip my mental switch from lack to abundance, whenever I consistently think, speak and act rich, I will become rich. It truly is this effortless for me to manifest whatever conditions of wealth and abundance I desire for my life.

It's Day 38 . . . I'm empowered for life!

What I think, speak, do and believe is what I get. If I believe I am poor, poverty is what I will attract. However, if I believe I am rich, the bounty of the universe will continuously flow to me. Having an abundance consciousness means wholehearted faith that I am generous, wholehearted faith that I am worthy of abundance and wholehearted faith that I am an affluent individual. In my thoughts, words and actions, I shall now develop the winning discipline of projecting abundance to all people. I shall learn to give of myself by contributing as much richness to others as I can. I shall embrace the world with every abundant thought, word and deed.

I shall transform myself, becoming a sincere and generous person; one who gives more than receives. I shall be generous in my attitude of enjoying life to the maximum. I shall be generous in the quality of effort I put into my personal development. I shall be generous in the amount of love, respect and praise I give to others. I can afford to be generous, yes, for an endless source of riches and wealth is forever attracted to me when I project a consciousness of abundance.

My Abundance Manifestation

As a fundamental part of my morning Powerizing routine, I shall affirm to the heavens a massively empowering personal Abundance Manifestation. This is a most potent form of affirmation, where several of the strongest ones are placed together to form a powerful statement of intent to the universe. This is best performed with arms outstretched, palms and head up, eyes closed, face toward the sun, stated out loud with high emotional intensity.

Following is the personalized Abundance Manifestation of the author that he endeavors to state every day — either during the early morning as the sun is rising or at twilight while the sun is setting. For him, there is something mystical about the sunrise and sunset. At these times, he can truly feel the enormous power of the universe just waiting for him to utilize its awesome energy to manifest his grandest and most elaborate desires.

S3: EMPOWERED MILLIONAIRE COACHING
MODULE 2.5 POWER MANIFESTATIONS

Whether I have yet decided upon clear immediate intentions to drive me on toward success, or have even a humble mission to fix my attention upon, this has nothing to do with the outer circumstances of my life and everything to do with me. So I shall not blame any outside factors for my success or failure. The scope of the intentions I choose to pursue, and my resultant financial status, has everything to do with me and is the effect of my current mindset — which results from my thoughts, my words and my actions.

If my life is not yet as I would wish, I must be the one to develop intentions for my life that are exciting and exhilarating — a major purpose that wakes me up early and keeps me up late. In bringing my intentions to fruition, I shall focus on what I can do — and I shall do all tasks to the greatest of my ability. I shall overcome my natural inertia, my lack-of-action habit, by going out into the world and every day doing those activities that are harmoniously aligned with my immediate intentions.
