MODULE 3.2

POWER QUALITIES

“Many individuals have, like uncut diamonds, shining qualities beneath a rough exterior.”

DECIMUS JUVENALIS

Successful people from all walks of life display winning qualities throughout their endeavors. In fact, it is these empowering character traits that distinguish the successful from the also-rans. People with winning qualities act and perform like the professionals they are. The champions in the game of life develop a lifestyle and an environment that is both empowering and inspiring to themselves and pleasurable to those people who are in their circle of influence.

For me to possess this winning style and act with complete professionalism, I need to adopt the posture, attitude and action modalities of a self-assured professional person. This all begins with me adopting the winning characteristics of a successful person. Here are some of the positive qualities that an Empowered Millionaire consistently displays:

- Decisive: Makes decisions fast and commits to those choices. Establishes specific objectives. Creates detailed plans for achievement. Focuses on results — is solution conscious. Always talks straight. Doesn't waste time. Takes action today not tomorrow — TNT!
- Confident: Has acquired the posture of a successful individual and possesses the mindset of a winner. Talks of opportunities, not problems. Thinks, talks and acts only joy, happiness, love, passion, progress and prosperity. Is comfortable and at ease with superiors. Has mastered the art of casual conversation.

- Purposeful: Stands and sits straight. Walks briskly. Knows where he or she is going and how to get there. Looks people directly in the eyes. Talks the talk and walks the walk of a winner. Has a magnificent mission to strive toward.
- Competent: Organizes thoughts before speaking. Is brief, specific, direct and intelligible. Stays poised and composed. Is calm and relaxed. Does not appear stressed or rushed. Is quick to master new skills.
- Honest: Comes from an integrity based foundation in every transaction. Always tells the truth and never falsifies records of any kind. Is transparent in all dealings so that all matters are in the open and crystal clear.
- Analytical: Does more asking than telling. Asks intelligent questions. Listens to the answers. Does not accept generalities and demands specifics. Is usually very accurate in his or her statements and projections.
- Smart: Dresses for success. Stays one level above the crowd. Keeps weight down. Looks smart. Looks fit. Looks healthy. Appears to go first class in everything.

Qualities For The Ten Areas Of Life

Professionalism speaks volumes as to who someone is, what they stand for and what moral standards they judge themselves by. The professionals set an example to those who look to them for encouragement, guidance and leadership. They project their best image in the way they walk, the way they talk, the way they act and in everything they do. The following examples specifically relate to each of the ten areas of life.

It's Day 42 . . . I'm empowered for life!

◆ Physical

For any individual to be considered successful, fabulous health and optimum wellness must be near the top of their list of physical objectives to attain. Without the best of health, any man or woman will always be considered poor, no matter their financial status. As such, winning qualities for this crucial area of life could include: perseverance and commitment in sticking to a health regimen, discipline and dedication in attaining specific health goals, and enthusiasm and passion in following through with the daily practices that must be completed for the physical objectives to be attained.

◆ Financial

In reaching one's financial targets, positive character traits could include: resourcefulness and ingenuity in creating plans for developing multiple streams of income, determination and fortitude in carrying out those plans, and patience and strength of character in sticking with savings and investment strategies.

◆ Business

For success in business, the most important winning qualities are honesty and integrity in all dealings. Having the ability to focus on specific objectives and staying optimistic for future results are vital character traits. Also of great importance in the corporate world are industriousness and resilience in performing the tasks demanded for a successful enterprise.

◆ Career

Winning qualities for the person striving for success in the professional arena are ambition and purposefulness in aiming high on the career ladder, persuasiveness and eloquence in stating one's desires, and confidence, consistency and effectiveness in leading the way to manifesting the desired outcomes.

It's Day 42 . . . I'm empowered for life!

◆ Mental

Positive character traits for the mindset of a successful individual include: being visionary and displaying competence, being decisive and showing assertiveness, being alert and possessing intelligence.

◆ Social

Honor is one of the most important social qualities for success, as is being courteous and polite. Of great importance are also punctuality and thoughtfulness, and being agreeable and charismatic.

◆ Spiritual

Winning qualities for the spiritual sphere are helpfulness and benevolence. Also responsibility and generosity toward helping others, and being dignified and magnanimous in charitable endeavors.

◆ Family

For success within the family and home arena, faithfulness and loyalty are paramount. Also tenderness and understanding are essential, as are tolerance and devotion toward the family members.

◆ Material

Dedication toward manifesting one's material objectives is of prime significance here. As is persistence and tenacity in attaining what is desired, and creativity in performing required endeavors.

◆ Adventure

The successful individual displays outstanding courageousness in pursuit of an exhilarating lifestyle. This winner possesses the qualities of zestfulness and enthusiasm in abundance too.

Positive Power Qualities For Me To Employ

I must incorporate this list of fifty-one Power Qualities into every facet of my life. The best way to begin is with the winning discipline of affirming these character traits as statements of fact. This is done by stating “I am...” followed by the specific quality. For example:

- I am honest!
- I am determined!
- I am enthusiastic!
- I am resourceful!
- I am focused!
