MODULE 5.5

ULTIMATE PERSONAL VISION

*“People often say that this or that person has not yet found himself.
But the self is not something that one finds. It is something one creates.”*

THOMAS SZASZ

The process of creation is governed by infallible laws that when acted upon will undoubtedly lead to the manifestation of whatever is desired. To manifest what I earnestly seek, I shall first create my highest vision of myself. I shall imagine the ‘ultimate me’ that I would be if I lived in alignment with this supreme image every day — imagining what I would think, say and do, and how I would respond to what others say and do. I shall then ask myself this insightful question to see if what I desire to manifest is congruent with what my spirit is now projecting:

Q. Can I see any difference between this projection of my highest vision and everything I think, say and do presently?

I must be entirely honest with myself if I am to manifest my desires. If I am completely truthful, I will know unquestionably that I am not presently living my highest vision of myself — and surely no where near my highest vision. Once I understand the differences between where and who I am presently and where and who I choose to be, I shall endeavor to close the gap by making a change in my consciousness — that is I will consciously decide to alter my thoughts, words and actions to be in harmonious alignment with my highest vision of myself. In the beginning, this will require immense mental effort. It will entail constant, moment to moment monitoring of my every thought, word and deed, and it will involve continually making empowering choices. This process of manifestation, of creating my ideal existence, is a move to being aware of living more consciously.

What I will discover when I take this challenge is that I have perhaps spent vast periods of my life living unconsciously — just going with the flow. This is to say, I have been unaware on a conscious level of what thoughts, words and deeds I am choosing. This is at least until I experience the aftermath of them, in the results I manifest. However, right now — today — is the best time for me to be fully empowered as I take control of my consciousness and direct it with empowered thoughts, empowered words and empowered deeds from this moment forth, leading to the realization of the greatest version of the highest vision of who I choose to be.

My Faith Shall Be All-Commanding

“Please, God, when I grow up, make me a preacher.” This is what Rev. Robert H. Schuller, the founder of the Crystal Cathedral, said in his night-time prayers every evening for more than twenty years, from his early childhood until at last he attained what for him at that time was his highest vision for himself and he did indeed become a preacher. Likewise, for me to attain whatever I aspire to, my faith in the positive outcome I seek must be just as all-commanding as his. To develop unassailable faith, I shall be infinitely serene — taking advantage of my long periods of daily solitude — and discover a deep feeling of knowingness inside my heart that can help me let go of such negative emotions as disbelief and doubt. I shall know the attainment of my desires are on their way — always at the correct time as they best serve the realization of my life’s ultimate purpose.

The infallible laws of the universe always support me in attaining my desires. The more I surrender to the powerful feeling of faith, the more these laws can help me. The universe always provides in abundance all the necessities that constitute successful life. Therefore, it is wise to strengthen this sacred faith. If I have trouble trusting, I shall watch my mind vigilantly for old patterns of fear and doubt, and then gently re-focus on a more empowering thought-flow. Once I wholeheartedly trust the universe, my desires will start to manifest. Deep and abiding faith arises when I am in touch with the infinite patience that engages the manifesting process.

Crystal Clarity And Wholehearted Belief

For me to become all that I am capable of becoming, attain all that I am capable of attaining and experience all I am capable of experiencing, I must possess two qualities:

1. Crystal clarity of intent.
2. Wholehearted belief.

I must know at the very deepest levels of my being precisely what it is that I most earnestly desire. My intent must be crystal clear. Whatever I sincerely yearn for, do I know exactly what it is — do I have absolute clarity? And do I have wholehearted belief that I truly can manifest what I seek — do I have unquestionable, abiding faith? These two qualities are vital, no matter whether I seek physical, emotional, spiritual or material objectives, such as:

- The hand in marriage of my true soul mate.
- Career bliss as a published best-selling author.
- Fabulous affluence with $10 million net worth.
- Ownership of a brand new Rolls Royce automobile.
- Opulent ocean-view villa at Diamond Head, Hawaii.
- Supreme wellness and vigorous vitality at 100 years old.
- Remarkable self-belief as the winner of an Olympic medal.

I must be a vigilant listener during the process of creation. When I am, I will see that my passive self-talk — the inner voice of my mind that is forever present in talking to me — is either cheering me on as a believer in me, or is causing doubt to arise in my ability to master the physicality of manifestation. If my self-talk is supportive of my efforts, thereby empowering me, I have succeeded in winning to my cause a great ally. However, if there is conflicting disbelief and doubt — hidden within, but that keeps surfacing in defeating and disempowering self-talk — I must come to terms with my self-doubt, fast, and transform my internal dialogue to a powerhouse of support based on total belief in my powers of manifestation.

The Key To My Wealth Is Within Me

Do I ever wonder why some people are incredibly wealthy, while others — maybe even me — have meager incomes and zero savings? Do I ever notice that some of the wealthiest people aren't always the most educated, or the hardest working, or even the smartest? Do I ever wonder what financially-blessed people have in their minds that their poverty-stricken brothers and sister do not? Well, the key to all these questions is found within the person, not in the tools they use. In short, the individuals who do well financially have an inner set of beliefs — an empowering mindset — that helps them to more easily achieve whatever they desire, no matter what tools they are handed. The wealthiest individuals possess an inner wiring that directs them, almost automatically, to earn large sums of money and achieve their keenest aspirations. In short, prosperous people are programmed for success. And this is why the wealthiest individuals tend to become wealthier — their ever-increasing riches enables them switch on an inner magnet, thereby attracting even greater prosperity.

As an Empowered Millionaire, I am responsible for all financial blessings that transpire in my life — or that don't. I know that wealth results from my prosperity consciousness — or lack thereof. All cash windfalls and sudden success that transpire for me — or that don't — all directly result from my focused thoughts, my positive words and my empowered actions. To attain the success I seek, I must totally understand this fact: I am the reality-making creator of my own life — whether I want to be responsible in claiming this all-commanding power or not, this power is always mine. As such, every day I must focus on my Ultimate Personal Vision to possess crystal clarity of intent and develop wholehearted belief in my ability to manifest what I desire.

Visualizing My Ultimate Personal Vision – Every Day

The feelings I exude, positive and negative, are what lead to the manifestation of my desires, good and bad. As I truly feel, this is how my world will be. Feelings that lead to success are created by way of emotionally-charged visualizations — ones with a high vibrational frequency. It is the truth that desire mixed with vivid imagining leads to the manifestation of successful results. So, I shall vibrantly visualize my desires within all ten areas of my life as already being fulfilled, feeling these objectives as already existing in my present reality.
