MODULE 6.3

CHIEF FINANCIAL AIM

*“Money is not the key to happiness.
But the more money you have,
the easier it is to get the key made.”*

ANGELO D’AMICO

The Empowered Millionaire is eager to earn as much money as possible and attain financial independence. This maximization of income is financial freedom, which is the ability to live for the remainder of one’s life without outside help, working if choosing to do so but only if so desired. It means to have enough money and income for the rest of one’s life to do or have whatever is wanted. The extent or degree to which an individual can become financially independent is determined by multiple factors.

Seven factors determining my financial independence:

- Knowledge: What specialized knowledge I possess.
- Sum: The amount of money or income I covet.
- Desire: The depth and strength of my aspirations.
- Effort: The strength of endeavor I commit to the tasks.
- Confidence: My levels of belief and self-worth.
- Success: The success of the financial vehicles I choose.
- Time: The number of years I allocate to reach my goals.

No matter where I am or what my current personal circumstances are, I can use my present position as a stepping stone on my way to financial independence. I can use my current status, no matter my aptitude or intelligence, to prepare myself for higher achievement and greater income by partaking in a variety of entrepreneurial programs that broaden the possibilities of multiplying my personal value and increasing my earnings.

Seven-Step Formula for Riches

One indisputable truth is that to achieve financial independence, or a sizable accumulation of money, I must first know the exact sum of money I desire and know the product or service I will provide in exchange for this sum. Whatever I provide should be aligned with my life's ultimate purpose, which will give the earning of this sum greater personal meaning to me. The following Seven-Step Formula for Riches will help me to establish how strong my financial motivations are:

1. Determine the exact quantity of money I desire. Be specific in stating the precise amount.
2. Set a date for the accumulation of this money. Again, be specific in the exact time frame.
3. State the exact product or service I intend providing to attain this money. Phrase this in alignment with my life's mission.
4. Create a detailed plan of action to attain this financial goal, listing the exact action-steps required.
5. Write the above four points as a clear concise statement on a fresh sheet of paper.
6. Repeat this statement out loud with enthusiasm and emotion at least once every day.
7. Take immediate and continued action toward the attainment of this financial goal.

This formula, although primarily intended for successfully establishing my Chief Financial Aim, can actually be adapted and applied to any goal within each of the ten areas of my life, whether physical objectives, emotional aims or material aspirations.

1. Determine The Exact Quantity Of Money I Desire

It is imperative right from the start that my financial intent is specific and I have a clear understanding of the precise monetary windfall I expect — the more exact the amount, the better.

MY CHIEF FINANCIAL AIM IS TO HAVE IN MY POSSESSION THE SUM OF...

➤ US$250,000

2. Set A Date For The Accumulation Of This Money

The more precise my financial intention, the easier to manifest. Therefore, as well as being specific in the amount of money desired, the date must be exactly specified.

IT IS MY INTENT TO HAVE THIS PRECISE AMOUNT IN MY POSSESSION ON THE DATE OF...

➤ December 31st this year

3. State The Exact Product Or Service I Intend Providing To Attain This Money

The universe is set up to manifest all clearly defined intentions backed by absolute commitment. As such, I must specify the precise product or service I shall offer in exchange for the money I desire.

S3: EMPOWERED MILLIONAIRE COACHING
MODULE 6.3 CHIEF FINANCIAL AIM

THIS EXACT AMOUNT WILL MATERIALIZE BY THIS PRECISE DATE AS MY PERSONAL REWARD FOR DOING THE VERY BEST WITH EVERY FINANCIAL OPPORTUNITY THAT PRESENTS ITSELF TO ME.

THIS INCLUDES MY WORK AT...

- Authoring & creating the highly empowering and life revolutionizing S1-S2-S3 Empowered Millionaire Success Systems with tremendous product value for the client, then successfully marketing these programs via a highly profitable e-commerce business strategy

4. Create A Detailed Plan Of Action To Attain This Goal

Planning is a vital element of success and entails writing concise descriptions of my objectives, their dates for accomplishment and the deeds I will endeavor to complete in successfully reaching them. Thorough planning must be followed by a powerful statement of intent in the form of an affirmation, which acknowledges that the riches I desire will divinely manifest for me.

I have developed a detailed 'POWER' plan by which to accumulate this exact amount on this precise date. I have made a personal commitment to excellence and will perform all tasks to the greatest of my ability with enthusiasm and honesty.

I am absolutely confident that I will have this amount on this certain date. My belief is so strong that I can clearly see myself already in possession of this money. I know that if it is to be... it is up to me. Therefore, I will give the most excellent service of which I am capable to all people at all times.

21 Solutions To My Financial Dilemma

In striving to attain financial freedom, there are several essential money management skills that must often be applied early on before I can ever reach a high level of prosperity. These begin with facing any financial crisis head on, immediately. Many people become panic-stricken when faced with financial difficulties. This is because they are focused on the problem and are not looking at the solution. They do not see the vast number of opportunities that are available for them to increase their wealth, thereby solving their monetary dilemmas. However, as an Empowered Millionaire, I know the secret to overcoming financial challenges is not in panicking — the secret is to simply earn enough income to solve the difficulty.
